

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:
Whitney Brubaker
FARW VP Programs
programs@farw.org | 214-725-0702

FARW "State of the City Luncheon," 5B Mile Presentation, and Candidate Meet & Greet

FRISCO, TX – April 4, 2015 – The City of Frisco's Director of Development Services, John Lettelleir, along with Mayor Pro Tem Bob Allen and Councilman Will Sowell will speak at the Frisco Area Republican Women's (FARW) luncheon meeting from noon to 1 pm on Thursday, April 9, at Stonebriar Country Club in Frisco.

Frisco is busting at the seams and growing faster than ever. The luncheon will be based around the presentation on the "$5 billion dollar mile" and its impact from Lettelleir. City Council Candidates Allen and Sowell will briefly address the club re their plans as candidates in light of Frisco's explosive growth and economic development.

The meeting will adjourn at 1pm.

Following the meeting will be a candidate "meet and greet" with both Council and FISD School Board Candidates. Please visit with the candidates as long as you want or are able to stay.

"FARW is pleased to welcome John Lettelleir as our guest speaker at this month's luncheon meeting. His insight into current news events in Frisco will be of great interest to our attendees," said Cindy Asche, President of FARW. "Our new streamlined 'Power Hour' format delivers vital information during the lunch hour and gets our attendees back to their busy day."

FARW is also collecting new or gently used Children's Books for Frisco Reach Out. Frisco Reach Out exists to share the love of Jesus by providing the practical needs of the vulnerable, offering a helping hand to get back on their feet. For questions, please contact Carol Gallagher at care@FARW.org. Please bring any book donations on Thursday.

For more information or to make a reservation, click here.

FARW Luncheon
Thursday, April 9, 2015
11:45 am check in, lunch noon – 1pm
Stonebriar Country Club
Frisco, TX
Please rsvp by April 8, 2015
Cost is $20

About FARW

Based in Frisco, Texas, the Frisco Area Republican Women (FARW) are dedicated to providing political information and education to the electorate as well as increasing the effectiveness of women in the course of good government through active political participation. FARW is committed to facilitating cooperation among local Republican Women's Clubs, promoting the Republican Party principles and candidates in local state, and national elections, and supporting outreach programs through Caring For America. FARW also works to fund and award the "Shirley Melton Johnson Scholarships." Visit www.farw.org to learn more. Connect with FARW on Facebook or Twitter.